MISSION STATEMENT

A Mission Statement should answers the questions, Who are we? And what do we do? It states what the local government does now. It tells residents, businesses, nonprofits and other key interest groups what we do on a daily basis.

The Town of Rocky Mountain House acts with integrity to serve people, build relationships and pursue growth.

VISION STATEMENT

A Vision Statement should answer the question, what do we want our community to look like in 15 years? It tells residents what you want to achieve, and how the governing body sees itself in the future.

The Town of Rocky Mountain House is a caring, cohesive and desirable community for all.

Message from the Mayor and Council

The Town of Rocky Mountain House has been built by people who know the value of hard work. Folks here get up early, put in a full day, help their neighbours and take pride in where they live. That spirit is what makes this community strong, and it is what will carry us forward to 2030 and beyond.

Council has set five priorities for ourselves. Over the next 4 years, we will focus on:

Serviced, shovel-ready land for residential, commercial and industrial uses.

Positioning for Phase 1 of a new multiplex.

Housing for all now, and in the future.

Steady infrastructure maintenance of pipes, roads and treatment plants.

Improved positive social sentiment.

These are lofty goals, but we believe, with your support, we can make it happen.

Community Values

This Strategic Plan is based on four simple but important ideas: making sure Rocky Mountain House is a good place to earn a living; that it is a great place to live; keeping myself and my fellow councillors accountable to the people who elected us; and making sure the Town as a corporate entity is around for the generations still to come.

We have identified these ideas under the banner of our Community Values. They are:

Economic Prosperity

Livability

Governance Excellence

Organizational Durability

Economic prosperity matters because people need steady jobs, strong local businesses, and confidence that this community has a future. We want to support the businesses that are already here and welcome new investment. We want to create the right conditions for diverse and sustainable economic growth. That means prioritizing shovel-ready land, planning for the future, and celebrating and supporting existing businesses and entrepreneurs. We know that when businesses do well, the whole Town does well.

But economic prosperity on its own is not enough. People want safe streets, reliable services, good recreation opportunities, attractive public spaces and neighbourhoods where families, seniors, workers, and young people all feel at home. Council wants this too: a livable community that is welcoming, connected and thriving with positivity.

The way we talk about our Town matters. For too long, the loudest voices have been focused only on what is wrong or lacking. That can really wear a town down, and I'm calling on every Town resident to join us in changing that narrative. As a Council, we want to hear people speak with pride about our community.

We have so much to celebrate, and we should be supporting one another and recognizing the hard work happening all around us. That does not mean pretending everything is perfect: a strong community does not run from its problems but faces them with honesty and kindness. When we choose to be constructive instead of cynical, proud instead of dismissive, it shows. It affects how we welcome new families, support local businesses, attract investment and work together to make things better.

*"The way we talk about our Town matters."
-Mayor Shane Boniface*

You deserve common sense from your local government. Governance excellence means being straight with people, spending money carefully and making decisions that are fair and far-sighted. It means Council and Administration will pull in the same direction to achieve our big goals.

Mayor

We also want to keep our finger on the pulse of longevity. We must keep our finances in order and take care of the roads, facilities, and services people rely on. Organizational durability means being ready for today and prepared for whatever comes next.

This plan is about finding that balance. We want to grow, in a way that makes sense for our Town and for the people who call it home. We want to protect what is good, improve what needs work, and build a future that gives the next generation every reason to stay, work, and raise a family here.

Underpinning all decisions, Council promises to adhere to fiscal responsibility, reasonable tax increases, economic, social, environmental sustainability and integrity.

This Council is committed to earning your trust and doing right by this community. That is the kind of government we believe in, and that is what this Strategic Plan is meant to demonstrate. This is our roadmap for getting there, and it starts with staying true to who we are: hardworking, grounded, and ready to get things done.
