New bench honours victims and survivors of impaired driving

A new memorial granite bench has been installed near Curtis Field. The bench, a gift from MADD Canada, MADD Red Deer & District and James H. Brown & Associates, honours all victims and survivors of impaired driving. Mayor Tammy Burke, RCMP Constable Woerz and MADD Red Deer representative Brenda Brown are pictured here at the Aug. 14 unveiling.

Reminders

A 6% penalty will be applied to all unpaid 2019 property taxes on Oct. 1.

Contact the Property Taxation Coordinator at 403-845-2866 to make sure your account is in good standing.

When making utility payments via online banking, ensure your account number is correct. Payments made to incorrect account numbers will be rejected and may result in interruption of utility services. Contact the Utilities Coordinator at 403-845-2866 with any questions.

Sign up for utility e-billing!

Account holders who signed up for e-billing over the last six months were entered to win a monthly draw for a $100 utility credit. While the incentive program has wrapped up, you can still sign up for convenient utility e-billing and pre-authorized payment withdrawals at the Town Office. Phone the Utilities Coordinator at 403-845-2866.
